

First Graz-Vienna-Bratislava Graduate Workshop

organized by

Institute of Philosophy – Slovak Academy of Sciences

and

Unit for Philosophy of Science and Epistemology – University of Vienna

April 4th, 2014

SPEAKERS:

10:00 – 11:00 Agnieszka KOCHANOWIC (Graz)

Luck and Significance

11:00 – 12:00 Katherina KINZEL (Vienna)

Defending Confirmational Holism.

Three Arguments Against the Duhem Thesis, and Why They Fail.

12:00 – 13:30 LUNCH

13:30 – 14:30 Thomas PÖLZER (Graz)

What if Moral Values Were Projections?

14:30 – 15:30 Sebastian KLETZL (Vienna)

Enough Evidence!

15:30 – 16:00 BREAK

16:00 – 17:00 Miloš KOSTEREC (Bratislava)

Models of Method

17:00 – 18:00 Martin VACEK (Bratislava)

Impossible Worlds and the Incredulous Stare (Again)

VENUE Institute of Philosophy, Klemensova 19, 813 64, Bratislava, Slovakia