

First Bratislava-Vienna Philosophy Graduate Student Workshop

Organized by

Unit for Philosophy of Science and Epistemology, University of Vienna,
Vienna Forum for Analytic Philosophy,
Institute of Philosophy, Slovak Academy of Sciences

Saturday October 12th, 2013

Lecture Room 2G, 2nd floor, Department of Philosophy at the University of Vienna
Neues Institutsgebäude (NIG), Universitätsstraße 7, 1010 Wien

9.30 a.m.

Ivana Klimová (Bratislava) | Kuhn's Notion of Paradigm

11.00 a.m. Break

11.30 a.m.

Martin Vacek (Bratislava) | Are Impossible Worlds Structureless?

1.00 p.m. Lunch

2.30 p.m.

Katharina Kinzel (Vienna) | Narrative and Theory-Ladenness in Historiography:
How Can Case Studies from the History of Science
Support Arguments in the Philosophy of Science?

4.00 p.m. Break

4.30 p.m.

Sebastian Kletzl (Vienna) | Instruments as a Social Source of Knowledge